PROCESSIONAL HYMNS

On exiting to Carrubber's Close:

New English Hymnal 433

O WORSHIP the King all glorious above;
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

This earth, with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power hath founded of old:
Hath established it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! How firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

At the High Altar:

Almighty God,
 whose blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life:
 Grant that your Church,
 instructed by their teaching and example,
 and made one by your Spirit,
 may ever stand firm upon the one foundation,
 Jesus Christ our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

We continue on page 3 of the Liturgy of High Mass booklet.

FIRST READING Ezekiel 34.11-16

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 87

Response:

On the holy mountain stands the city he has founded; *
 the LORD loves the gates of Zion
 more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
 Glorious things are spoken of you, *
 O city of our God.

Response.

I count Egypt and Babylon among those who know me; *
 behold Philistia, Tyre, and Ethiopia:
 in Zion were they born.
 Of Zion it shall be said, "Everyone was born in her, *
 and the Most High himself shall sustain her."

Response.

The LORD will record as he enrolls the peoples, *
 "These also were born there."
 The singers and the dancers will say, *
 "All my fresh springs are in you."

Response.

SECOND READING 2 Timothy 4.1-8

GRADUAL HYMN 224 For all thy saints, O Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION John 21.17

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
 Lord, you know everything; *
 you know that I love you.

GOSPEL John 21.15-19

SERMON Fr Ian Paton

O measureless Might, ineffable Love,
 While angels delight to hymn thee above,
 Thy humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
 With true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

Words: Robert Grant.

In the High Street:

For all the saints who went before us who have spoken to our hearts and touched us with your fire,
Thanks be to God.

For all the saints who live beside us whose weaknesses and strengths are woven with our own,
Thanks be to God.

For all the saints who live beyond us who challenge us
 to change the world with them,
Thanks be to God.

From the High Street to Jury's Inn:

New English Hymnal 197, verses 1-4 and 8

FOR all the Saints who from their labours rest,
 Who thee by faith before the world confest,
 Thy name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.
 Alleluya! Alleluya!

Thou wast their Rock, their Refuge, and their Might;
 Thou, Lord, the Vision ever in their sight,
 Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.
 Alleluya! Alleluya!

O may thy servants, faithful, true, and bold,
 Strive for thy kingdom as thy Saints of old,
 And win, with them, the glorious crown of gold.
 Alleluya! Alleluya!

O blest communion! fellowship divine!
 We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
 Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
 Alleluya! Alleluya!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
 Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
 Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
 Alleluya! Alleluya!

Words: Walsham How (altered).

At Jury's Inn:

For all that God can do within us,
 For all that God can do around us,
Thanks be to God.

For all in whom Christ lived before us,
 For all in whom Christ lives beside us,
Thanks be to God.

For all the Spirit wants to bring us
For where the Spirit wants to send us
Thanks be to God.

Jesus said to the disciples,
“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you.
And remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age.”

Look at your hands,
see the touch and the tenderness.
God’s own for the world.

Look at your feet,
see the path and the direction.
God’s own for the world.

Look at your heart,
see the fire and the love.
God’s own for the world.

Look at the cross,
see God’s Son and our Saviour.
God’s own for the world.

This is God’s world
and we will serve God in it.

From Jury’s Inn along Jeffrey Street:

Hymns Old & New 394, verses 1-3, 5-6, 8, 10, 12

LIFT high the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name.

Come, Christians, follow where our Saviour trod, o’er death victorious, Christ the Son of God:

Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
the hosts of God in joyful praise combine:

Each new disciple of the Crucified is called to bear the seal of him who died:

Saved by this Cross whereon their Lord was slain,
now Adam’s children their lost home regain:

From north and south, from east and west they raise in growing harmony their song of praise:

Let every race and every language tell of him who saves our souls from death and hell:

Set up thy throne, that earth’s despair may cease beneath the shadow of its healing peace:

So let the world proclaim with one accord
the praises of our ever-living Lord.

Words: George Kitchin and Michael Newbolt (altered).

At the Calvary:

O God,
source of every good gift
and sure foundation of our unity:
As we honour and revere Saints Peter and Paul,
grant your Church a share
in their zeal for preaching the gospel;
strengthen our faith,
to be witnesses, even unto death,
of the one Lord, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever. Amen.

On re-entering the nave:

Hymns Old & New 617

STAND up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand up before his cross,
An instrument of torture,
Inflicting pain and loss;
Transformed by his obedience
To God’s redeeming plan,
The cross was overpowered
By Christ, both God and man.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Be counted as his own;
His gospel of forgiveness
He cannot spread alone.
The love which draws us to him,
He calls us out to share;
He calls us to the margins
To be his presence there.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
In faith, and hope be strong,
Stand firm for right and justice,
Opposed to sin and wrong.
Give comfort to the wounded,
And care for those in pain,
For Christ, in those who suffer,
Is crucified again.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Who reigns as King of kings,
Be ready for the challenge
Of faith his kingship brings.
He will not force obedience,
He gives to each the choice
To turn from all that’s holy,
Or in his love rejoice.

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Give courage to the weak,
Be unashamed to praise him,
Be bold his name to speak.
Confront the cross unflinching,
Christ’s love has set us free;
He conquered death for ever
And lives eternally.

Words: Jean Holloway.
